God encourages responsible and profitable handling of money, but many Christians don't know where to begin when it comes to investing. To help Christians navigate the sometimes choppy waters of finance, author Danny Fontana explains investing in terms anyone can understand. Writing with a Christian worldview, Fontana gives interactive exercises to guide both beginning and experienced investors through the complexities and pitfalls of finance, including how to sidestep the seven traps that snag almost every investor. From understanding the stock market to planning an estate, Fontana guides the reader through the terminologies, processes, and rewards of successful money management, showing them how to keep a responsible perspective as they plan for their future.
