In the sticky, steamy jungles of Papua New Guinea, they fight for the lives of the world's most vulnerable people. They didn't expect to have to fight for their own. All investigative journalist Roxy Williams wanted was a hot one-night stand: quick, dirty, and completely one-off. A business transaction to ease stress, loosen tension, and allow her to get right back to her job-exposing the heart-breaking realities of people smuggling. So when all hell breaks loose in a small village on Papua New Guinea, the last person Roxy expects to see is her one-night-stand and male escort, Rob, with a boat, a beach, and an escape plan! Rob is supposed to be long-gone from this assignment, but after their one night together, he can't seem to let Roxy go. Using all his resources, Rob risks his job to keep track of her-and when a huge storm threatens, he goes after the sexy journalist. Now they're together, in danger, and fighting for their lives. People smuggling is a big money industry, and the smugglers are playing for keeps.
