Dead and Everything

Eve Benson, the world's hardest working baby vampire isn't going to be left to the normal course of things. As a new member of the undead she should be in for years of beatings, starvation, and possibly some other things that her parents wouldn't be happy to hear about.

Thanks to the training she put herself through though, Eve is a different kind of Vamp. More disciplined, focused, and of course, totally hot.

That won't get her any slack though, from her mentor, the Vampire Council, or whoever it is that's trying to destroy their entire community without warning. Because the worst thing imagine happens, leaving Eve, and all her friends totally exposed.

The humans know about them, and aren't forgetting fact like they normally do.

So guess who ends up in the middle of the mess?

Worse, there's only one kind of being that can truly be responsible for a plot that convoluted and dangerous.

Which means trying to survive, because no one wants to mess with a Demon.

Not if they want to survive.

Eve Benson: Vampire

In this brand new, complete series release, we get to follow Eve in her first year of being a vampire. Travel with her through the ups, the downs, and the discovery of a world that few have ever entered, from the viewpoint of a character that actually chooses her own fate, and loves what she's doing.

Sassy, vivacious, and still in charge, Eve is a nice change up from the maudlin and dark vampires characters we've seen in the past.

You can get the whole trilogy today, thanks to this new and revolutionary style of release. Three full novels available right now.

Eve Benson: Vampire

Book One: Finally Dead
