The DREAM which made her life a NIGHTMARE.

A series of deaths which the police think are unfortunate drownings date back to 1987; but Gaby, the only witness in all that time, is about to realise that something far more sinister is going on!

A strange recurring dream is haunting young lawyer Gaby; she seeks help from a psychologist and a psychic as she tries to figure it out. Then.....it hits her; the memory floods back! Suddenly everything she thought she knew about herself, her family and her past is cast into doubt.

Someone she loves is a KILLER.

But who will believe Gaby? He is popular, successful, charming and credible. The Police will say that she has no evidence. People will call her mad, paranoid or vindictive.

But Gaby is a determined young women and she selects her allies with great care, as there are few she dares trust in this duplicitous new world she finds herself in.

She and a maverick detective, Robbie Baggio set about assembling the evidence: secretly and urgently, before the cunning serial killer strikes again. However, he gets wind of her suspicions and this time when he kills, it's someone very close to Gaby, someone who also knows the truth.

Suddenly she realises that she is up against more than just him, he has eminent and influential friends and the scales of justice are rigged against her.

What would you do? What will Gaby do?

A thriller that will make you wonder if you can ever trust anyone again and the safe answer.....is NO.

If you enjoy Sidney Sheldon and Nicci French do not miss this enthralling mystery from Lisa Gordon winner of the 9th American Gem Literary Contest.
