Daeris believed the ancients were the wisest elves, totally devoted to Alfheim's ruling family. Why wouldn't she? She had grown up listening to songs and stories praising the ancient's wisdom and how past kings and queens had prospered, heeding the ancient's advice. Not until her mother's murder does she question their loyalty and finds the ancients are not what they seem. No one, especially her father, will listen even when presented with evidence. What will it take to convince them of the enemy within in their ranks, and if she can, will it be in time?
