library Mouse Every child can be a writer—that's the message of this heartwarming tale. A mouse named Sam lives behind the wall in the children's section of the public library, where the books inspire him to write one of his own. When he begins leaving his creative efforts on the shelf for daytime visitors to read, he becomes an instant celebrity. But no one knows who he is. Will he risk revealing his true identity? A Friend's Tale When a child named Tom needs a partner for a book-making assignment and he finds Sam's secret hole behind the children's reference section, will he and Sam be able to work together? Or will Sam's secret identity be spoiled forever? A heartwarming tale about collaboration and creative ambitions, this book will enchant any aspiring author or illustrator. A World to Explore One night in the library, Sam meets Sarah. Sam learns that Sarah is quite the explorer. She loves to scurry to the tops of shelves and explore the darkest corners of the building. Sam never climbs far up—he's too afraid! He prefers to research subjects—such as exploration—and write about them. Sarah doesn't know much about writing or research, but she learns that reading and research can help her learn more about the places she wishes to visit. Together this duo shows that, with teamwork, anything is possible.
