Life is a journey. A journey that starts from the family and then grows as children, young, old, strong and weak people join, all having different thoughts and choices. In this journey some become your friends, some sympathizers.

The journey will have its ups and downs, somewhere slippery, somewhere marshy. Friends support each other; they care for us and try to help us through this journey. Some succeed, some don't.

This journey does have some twists and turns.

Till when someone will be with us, we never know. We never know who will bid us good bye and never come back. The pain will go away with time, but the scar will always remind you of them and it becomes a part of our memories.
