Backstage Pass (The Backstage Pass Rock Star Romance) (Volume 1) Elizabeth Nelson

Sasha has one rule when it comes to her dating life—never date a musician. She knows the way things can end, so she doesn't let them get started. When she's setup with one by her well meaning best friend, she puts the brakes on before they even get going. Jesse has a rule about dating too—don't let a good one get away. And he knows right away that Sasha is worth the chase, no matter what her skewed stereotype of musicians may be. He lays it on thick with charm and nurses her back to health after a running accident. Sasha knows she should give him a chance, but is he worth it? She's seen it all go horribly wrong in the past. He can up and leave whenever he has a tour, and there's nothing she can do about it. But as he continues to pursue her, she starts to question her rule and feels herself starting to let him in, whether she's ready or not.
