Something was very wrong. Eden had been entirely too excited about her upcoming wedding to her long-time lover to get cold feet at the last possible second. Everyone who'd gone to the destination wedding in Paris knew it. So when one of the bridesmaids found what looked like a Dear John letter from Eden, saying only that she couldn't go through with it, everyone was shocked. Thomas doesn't believe that Eden wrote that note willingly and he'll stop at nothing to find the woman he loves... He's convinced that she'd been kidnapped or forced to leave him behind without any real explanation and he is determined to save her from whatever danger she is in... no matter what it takes, even if that meant giving up his own life in the process
