The Adventures of Tom, Dick & Harry Drew Steller

It was the summer of 2014, and it had been almost two years since Harry Lincoln left Mylon County. He was confident that he had overcome whatever turmoil his heart was battling, and was getting ready to move on with his life. But was he lying to himself? As Tom set out to find his elusive biological family for his upcoming nuptial with Richard, Harry found himself left alone with a man he knew he could not trust himself being around. To make things worse, ominous elements from Richard's past started surfacing just when the man was faced with the prospect of losing someone he held dear to his heart. Richard was left alone to fend for himself when he was at his weakest, and when Tom's return took an unexpected delay, Harry had to decide if he could risk losing control of his heart again to stand by a friend he loved beyond words. Had he found the strength he needed to fully break free from a man who had captured his heart so completely and still remained so close to him? Would he end up spending the rest of his life yearning for a heart that would never be his?
