Carolyn had never had any trouble with her assignments. As one of the most-talented of the UHT first contact representatives, she had spent her entire career reintegrating far-flung colonies back into the Solar System. Sure, there had been some challenges and, once reintroduced, some colonies choose to deal only as needed with the UHT. But EX-217 was shaping up to be the most challenging by far.

Why they insisted on her being accompanied by a Dextronin delegate she could not fathom. Nor could she figure out the massive, intelligent humanoid alien sitting at the console of her transport beside her. But she looked forward to reaching the colony and finding out more—about both. And she could hardly wait to plant her feet on normal-g ground.
