This chronicle unfolds the journey of a girl who found her destiny and purpose under threat. Almost drowned by insecurities, guilt, bitterness, the struggle to forgive self and move forward, she encountered a Father who refused to give up on her despite the circumstances. It is a memoir about finding hope and freedom from the chains that bind us and keep us from our purpose and destinies, tackling issues that are often brushed off yet deeply affect us and influence the decisions we make. It highlights the hazardous effects of unattended wounds that affect our lives in undesirable manners. This is not a physical battle but one of the mind, heart and spirit. This is a personal experience that continues to encourage us that the courage is in getting up and getting out, whilst the faith is in taking the journey into an unknown place yet fully trusting that God Almighty is directing our paths and will not forsake us.
