Things I'll Never Say M.J. O'Shea

Sam's best friend in the world is ditching him; moving out of state to go to college and leaving him behind. It hurts like hell but he doesn't know how to tell Ryan that he needs him to stay without saying too much. Like maybe that he might want to be a lot more than just friends...

Ryan has to get out. He's been in love with Sam for so many years he's afraid if he doesn't leave that he'll spend his whole life alone in love with someone he can never have...but of course Ryan can't tell his oldest and best friend that he's in love with him. It would ruin the most important thing in his life.

Before it's too late, they have to find the courage to tell each other the truth about how they feel...to finally say those things they've kept to themselves for far too long.
