Grey: Fifty Shades of Grey as Told By Christian : Story Shortened into 35 pages or less! Grey (Fifty Shades of Grey as Told by Christian) is a novel written by E.L. James, the same writer who wrote the Fifty Shades of Grey trilogy. The main difference between Grey and Fifty Shades of Grey is the fact that this novel was written from the perspective of one of the main protagonists—Christian Grey. The novel serves as a plot analysis for the main three books, because some part of the storyline from all three books remained somewhat hidden and unclear. By reading Grey, the reader has the opportunity to look at everything that happened in the novel from Grey's eyes; his relationship with Anastasia Steele, his relationship with his family, his own personal perspective of his past events and traumas and his own feelings, excitement and dilemmas when dealing with challenges such as dating Mrs. Steele, and the fact that Ana was the first woman who was able to ease his rules considering signing and obeying the contract. Grey is not a book, but instead, it serves as a fine supplement to the existing trilogy because of its nature. It is here to show us who Christian Grey really is.
