When Chloe had the chance to spend the summer abroad there was only one city that held the magic and enchantment she longed for, London. She found a flat in the oldest part that still had a very large old growth forest. It was in this forest that she met a mysterious stranger. Blake Prescott fascinated and scared her when he came out of the dark shadows. There was something otherworldly about him. She was soon to find out what it was. After she is unable to get him out of her mind he shows up to her in his primitive form, a wolf. She is shocked at his shape-shifting ability and she allows the magic man to explore her. He awakens her lust filled desires, but she wasn't expecting that he would have a friend to share her with. Another wolf, just like him. The three of them intertwine in a magical escape from reality.
