Gretchen Wythers, assistant at The Great Beyond funeral home, is determined to take a break from hunting murderers. But Samain - the festival when the veil between the worlds of the present and the past is stretched gossamer-thin - is a strange and dangerous time in the village of Hatterton Crow, and things become even stranger when Gretchen and her honey-voiced boss Carmel take a trip to Glasgow to stock up gingerbread treats. As an unexpected blizzard sweeps the country, and snow falls soft and deep and thick, and Gretchen finds herself trapped in an ancient Scotland, her world becomes a sinister place from which she must find escape or be stuck in the past forever. It's all enough to make the intrepid mortician wish that she'd stayed at home and solved a dozen murders.
