Romeo and Juliet in the Wild West...

Amelia Jacks has been madly in love with Derek Hunt for years, ever since a friend of hers back east signed her up as a mail-order bride as a prank. Derek's letters won her heart, but the two soon realized that their families were at odds with each other, and the love blooming between them could not be. Amelia was still back east, and when she finally came to join her family in his frontier town he ignored her at every turn. But now, the day before the Valentine's Day dance, he just handed her a gorgeous gift, and she's determined that she will win her suitor again, no matter what it takes!

Can the two young lovers overcome their families' disapproval and their own doubts? A sweet story of longing in the Old West.

Standalone story, no cliffhangers here!*

Please be aware that this is a romance short, not a full-length novel.*
