Spiritual non-fiction, poetry, and fiction from the believers of Calvary Evangelical Free Church, in Rochester, Minnesota. Non-fiction: How do we experience personal trials while relying on God? Do we see life through a biblical lens, life as spiritual metaphor? How do we share a biblical worldview? Poetry: How do we express our joy, hope, awe, and wonder for the God who created us and for the Son whom he sent us? How might biblical characters express their lives through poetry? Fiction: What happens when a Soviet soldier's faith meets brutal persecution? Or when a temple dragon comes alive and meets the "singing church"? Or when God touches a simple peasant stableman with an incredible gift? Or when an atheist confronts his own imminent mortality?
