The Philosophy of Spinoza Baruch Spinoza

Baruch de Spinoza was one of the most important and controversial thinkers of the 17th century. Rejecting both the mind-body dualism of Descartes and traditional religious views about God and the universe, Spinoza's philosophy was groundbreaking in its radical understanding of the relationship between the human person and the divine, the nature of moral action, and the relativization of the concepts of good and evil. This reissuing of THE PHILOSOPHY OF SPINOZA provides the reader with selections from the most important works of Spinoza and shows the daring scope of this visionary philosopher's thought.
