Captivated By You: A Detailed Summary About This Masterpiece Of Sylvia Day!

The Crossfire series revolves around Eva Tramell and Gideon Cross. Eva, a fresh graduate from college, is an independent and lovely person. Gideon, a 28-year-old billionaire, is an extremely protective person and a perfectionist. One of the most important similarities between these two is their hideous past, which still haunts and hurts them. Those unpleasant experiences have left a lasting effect of grief, fear, and other unexplained emotions on their actions and behaviors. They both help each other to try to forget the wounds from their cruel past and live contentedly.

The vows they exchanged in Caribbean should have formed a permanent bond between them, but as luck would have it, this is just what may take them away from each other. Their marriage is anything but predictable in the beginning of the book, but as we read more, we realize that it is only bringing flashbacks of all the insecurities and pain that they always had somewhere deep inside their heart.

Although the sexual interaction between the couple is still intense and strong, the reason for these two dysfunctional people to connect in the first place was now destroying them. They are now challenged - both individually and as a couple - more than they have been before. It appears that the consequences of the events happened in past are now threatening them again; hence, they have no way except to stay together and deal with it robustly.

It is the first time in the series that we get a chance to read Gideon's perspective. Since the story is told by the point of view of both Gideon and Eva, we get to understand Gideon more, and know how he feels about Eva. The complications of Gideon's life have also been revealed through his perspective. It was great to read what goes on in his mind. He confesses that his past still tortures him and makes him fight back. He knows that his psychotic behavior sometimes worries Eva, and he also acknowledges that she tries her best to support him in order to get out of this misery. He feels ashamed that he cannot give Eva a perfect life, even though he really wants to. Gideon's intensity, desperation, and his deep love and pain for Eva can be noticed from every sacrifice he made for her, keeping her away from harm.

“I would set the world on fire to clear a path for her, if that's what it took.”-Gideon
