Werebear romance.

For Emilia the most difficult thing about moving back to her childhood town isn't the men harassing her for money she doesn't owe, it's deciding what kind of relationship she wants with her childhood friend. He's hiding a secret from her that he's never told a single human. He can transform parts of himself into a bear. Being a Werebear will help Emilia with the problem of her old business partner sending men after her. Their plan works until complications arise and the police get involved. Even worse, one of them is an old school rival of Emilia's and Rory's. Emilia must immediately protect Rory from the man that hates him and also wants to capture the bear he turns into. The two of them have long suppressed the lust they have for one another and never given into for fear of ruining the long friendship they've had, but can they suppress it much longer?
