What is the Gospel?: Life's Most Important Question Anthony J. Carter

Life is filled with important questions. Who will be the next president? Can we win the war on terror? Will the Cubs ever reach the World Series again? As important as these questions may be, they pale in comparison to the question, "What is the gospel?" The answer to that question not only has implications for this life, but more importantly for the life to come. In this brief but challenging book, Anthony Carter asks and answers the question and pleads with readers to embrace the Person on whom the answer centers. Because there are so many answers to this all important question, Carter begins with what the gospel is not and then moves quickly to relate what the gospel is from the testimony of the Bible. The Bible says the gospel is a message of first importance. Carter shows us why. Every generation is called upon this answer this question afresh. This book will help you do just that.
