From the pen that brought us Am I a Hindu?, which received rave reviews from magazines and newspapers all over the world, another captivating, thought-provoking, and inspiring best seller. For the very first time, the most amazing secrets of the Bhagavad Gita are discussed in a lively dialogue between a grandfather and his American-born grandson. Lord Krishna never judges or orders anyone to behave a certain way in the Bhagavad Gita. He only shows us the pros and cons of every issue and leaves to each of us the question of whether to follow his teachings or not. He did not even influence Arjuna's free will, and throughout the Bhagavad Gita, you will not come across even one line starting with "Thou shalt not."
