Blushing Books is proud to present our first compendium of Real-Life stories from a series of authors such as Starla Kaye, Loki Renard, Joannie Kay, Korey Mae Johnson, and many more! A Note from Bethany of Bethany's Woodshed and Blushing Books: The authors in "Attitudes" are a mix of professionals, who've been writing for Blushing Books long before there WAS a Blushing Books (when we were still just plain old Bethany's Woodshed), and total newcomers, folks who have never written anything for public consumption before. What these stories have in common is that every one of them – as far as we can determine – are true. In fact, several of the emails that I received accompanying these submissions started with the same phrase: Unfortunately, this is a true story. Some are humorous. My own "The Problem with Smoke Detectors," when it was released, was called by several readers "the funniest thing I have ever read." While I don't think it's quite THAT good (and I sure wasn't laughing when it happened!) I must admit that now it is good for a chuckle or two. Ditto Incurable Cori's "Spanking is No Game." How can you not laugh out loud at the image of our poor heroine chucking toilet paper rolls at her boss from the safety of the store's loft – a refuge that unfortunately didn't last that long. Others are more serious, like Korey Mae Johnson's Paying the Toll, and discuss how spanking really works in genuine DD (Domestic Discipline) relationships. And we have the unique perspective from the Johnsons, because Korey's real-life husband James has provided two stories as well. Some feature couples where both members are avowed "spankophiles." Korey met James on a spanking forum; my Jim and I also met through the spanking community. Yet others, like Loki and her "vanilla" partner, did not originally share the spanko bug. Yet, when you read "My Vanilla Spanker," it's hard not to say to yourself: Well, he managed to figure THAT out! We hope you enjoy Attitudes, and will visit both Blushing Books, and Bethany's Woodshed. Our professional authors – Starla Kaye, Loki Renard, Korey Mae Johnson, and Joannie Kay – have many wonderful stories for you. And some of the new names in this book? Who knows what they might offer us in the future.
