Minister to Others, by Richard Leach and David Wheeler, is 6-session Bible Study that's a valuable tool in assisting churches to increase their relevancy to the community while building relational bridges through meeting needs over which they would intentionally share the gospel. In this study you will learn that service-oriented evangelistic ministries are among the purest expressions of ministry-based evangelism available to the church in the new millennium. As a basic expression of ministry-based evangelism, many people have discovered new joy in witnessing through a tool known as servanthood evangelism.
