When Laura Menard, a transplanted college professor from the Midwest, finds herself working with Ted Miller, a back country ranger for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, she does not expect to be caught in the crossfire between two ruthless drug cartels fighting for control of the Whoosh Watershed-nor does she expect to fall in love... But the conflict is real, escalating to the point where a private jet, full of heroin, is brought down by a well-placed bomb, and the lone survivor of the plane crash, a beautiful young woman, is rescued by a retired Army K-9 veteran and his orphaned wolf pup. Ted and Laura join forces with the FBI to combat the flow of drugs into their beloved Watershed, and when Ted Miller is offered a game warden's job in Northern Wisconsin, he asks Laura to marry him and return to the Midwest. Laura-torn between her love of Ted and her love of the Rockies-must make a difficult decision, a decision complicated by the return of a former lover. Rocky Mountain Watershed Sanctuary is packed with adventure, romance, and pulse-pounding excitement-and written with humor and a deep respect for the people and animals who inhabit the small mountain communities of the Rocky Mountain Watershed.
