Awake in Hell Helen Downing

Meet Louise Patterson. She's dead. She's also in Hell: a place where everyone must face the challenges of being damned. This includes below-code living arrangements, a supernatural closet that makes getting dressed every day punitive, and absolutely horrible coffee. When Louise was alive, she was one of those "go big or go home" kinda people. As an underworld dweller, she's getting used to the fact that living "larger than life" may have had some not-so-great consequences in the afterlife. That is until she loses her job in Hell.

In her search for gainful employment in Central City, Hades, she finds a post-it note that gives her something to look forward to for the first time since arriving down below. Louise discovers the Second Chance Temp Agency, with its enigmatic CEO Mr. Deedy who gives her so much more than a job. Foul-mouthed and seemingly unlucky, Louise gets pulled into a truly Hellacious adventure - filled with demons, ghosts, angels, magic, temp jobs, wardrobe malfunctions, and quite possibly -redemption.
