HPV and HPV-related diseases are becoming an increasing health problem on a global level, with over 50% of the world's population estimated as having HPV. In this book, Dr. Gowey challenges us to evaluate HPV related diseases, and helps patients to look beyond the virus into the possibility that lifestyle contributes heavily to precancerous lesions. Clinical trials, case studies, backing by research support her argument that HPV is a virus we may be able to live with and manage symptoms from.
