Pere Et Fils (24x36) (French Edition) Gregoire Korganow

Qu'est-ce qu'un pere? Qu'est-ce qu'un fils? Quel est le lien qui les unit? Le sang? L'amour? La transmission? L'heritage? Gregoire Korganow photographie des peres, de 30 a 80 ans, debout, torse nu, avec leur fils de quelques mois pour les plus jeunes ou entres dans la cinquantaine pour les plus ages. Ils sont proches, souvent peau contre peau. En regardant ces portraits, on recherche les ressemblances. On scrute les traits du visage, on compare les gestes, les attitudes. On imagine une histoire. On tente de percer le mystere de la relation. La nudite des corps jette le trouble, brouille un peu les pistes. Gregoire Korganow concoit ses images comme une invitation a regarder les failles, les apories, les desordres contemporains. Il s'interesse au hors champ, a l'infime. Le corps, ses stigmates et ses metamorphoses sociales occupent une place centrale dans son oeuvre. Sa forme est instable et volontairement permissive, inclusive. L'immersion et l' experimentation determinent le dispositif. C'est pour lui la condition d'une image precise et suggestive. Il prefere a une forme manifeste, une photographie plus ambigue et fragile qui laisse le spectateur libre de ses opinions, de son parcours.
