So, she's an angel, apparently.

Lizzie is still reeling from the fight with Van Edgerton, but there's no time to rest. People are disappearing in Hope City, and there's every possibility a magical serial killer is behind the attacks.

As for Benson, she has no idea where she stands with him. He wants to keep her on a leash, but she keeps breaking it.

From werewolves to creepy priests, Lizzie has to survive the back streets of Hope City and solve a string of grisly murders before it's too late.

Worse - she needs to survive Benson with all his infuriating but infatuating charm and arrogance.

Can she do it? Or will the darkness reach out and claim her?
