His Daughter's Blessing: An Amish Widower's Story Maggie Raine

"I just can't give you my blessing, daeddi..."

An Amish widower seeks the approval of his young daughter to marry eight years after the death of his wife, but something is keeping her from giving that blessing...

In "His Daughter's Blessing" author Maggie Raine tells a story of a grieving widower struggling to honor a promise he made before his wife died, his sweet daughter that fears losing the faint memories she has of her mother, and the strong, beautiful woman that has been a friend to them both.

??? Meet Katie

A young woman that is desperately trying to keep the memories of her mother alive. She knows her daed deserves her blessing to start courting again, but why can't she find the will to give him her blessing?

??? Meet Isaac

A good man and loving father, the memories of his wife Ruth's death still hurt eight years later, but why hasn't he kept the promise he made to her before she died?

??? Meet Hannah

She has been a substitute mother for Katie and a friend to Isaac through the years since Ruth's death, and she knows that Isaac wants to court her and marry her. Can she help Katie find the will to bless her father's courtship of her?
