On the surface, Saundra Smith seems to have her life in order. As a dedicated kindergarten teacher and loving friend, she's content - enough. But beneath that happy façade, Saundra is also hesitant to love again after a breakup shattered her heart into a million pieces.

Corporate executive Chris Parrish is anxious for a fresh start in a new town, far from his ex-wife and the problems that came with her. A chance encounter with Saundra holds the promise of a better, brighter future, but that new found happiness is short-lived when a phone call from his ex-mother-in-law turns his world upside down.

As Chris' past begins to collide with his present, his new relationship with Saundra bears the brunt. Can they hold on and learn to trust and love in spite of all they've endured?
