Screw Infertility!: Lessons from a Fertility Warrior. Surviving infertility, IVF and miscarriage. Mrs Robyn Danielle Birkin

After getting married and travelling the world, at the age of 30, Robyn and her husband decided to start a family, but after 12 heartbreakin months of trying alone, finally accepted that they had infertility. What came next was a gruelling year and a half of invasive fertility treatments, complications from medications and a soul crushing miscarriage. On her quest to fall pregnant and manage the incredible stress caused by treatments, Robyn researched, asked questions and reached out to others, discovering a number of powerful strategies to not only help her survive infertility, but thrive despite it. In this book, Robyn reveals her heartfelt, moving and inspiring journey, and uses her experience to share the lessons she learnt on this life changing journey from trying to conceive to motherhood.
