Crossing Dror Segev

Daniel is a successful, full of himself architect - but is NOT happy with his life. At the age of 38, he seems to be running away from everything substantial, living his life on auto-pilot. He eats, plays with his children, works out, doing what he always does, but at the end of the day, he feels utterly exhausted and terribly lost. Something MUST give. With a split moment decision he leaves his home, his wife and his children. He picks up a mourning friend, and embarks on a long cross country hike. During this journey, Daniel takes a long, probing look at his life. He wrestles with his inner demons, faces his true emotions, and maps his various relationships. Nothing will ever be the same anymore.
