Fire Trucks in Action 2006 Calendar Bill Tompkins

Revealing photographs detail 16-months of the hottest fire trucks and rescue vehicles available. Every month includes a main photo, plus sidebar images and informative captions explaining the action. The calendar covers firefighters in Omaha, Nebraska, battling a colossal four-alarm fire at the historic Butternut Coffee factory. The building was in the final stages of conversion into condo apartments and retail shops. It took more than eight hours to bring the fire under control. In New Orleans, firefighters are shown preventing the spread of a ferocious three-alarm fire that ripped through a one-block lumberyard despite high winds and raging 50-foot pallet stacks.
