Abby Grey escaped despite the odds. Abby never thought she'd have the strength, or the nerve, to get out. An abusive husband, a suffocating marriage, and a decade-long fight with PTSD conspired to trap her in that life. Now living in Ecuador amid the Andes Mountain Range, she enjoys a new life and a new relationship with an old friend. Her former troubles seem a world away. But that all changes when her new love confronts her ex back in North Carolina. If he becomes the next victim of the man she left behind, will it lead the violence of her past to her doorstep?

Harvesting the Hummingbird is a story of overcoming the odds, escaping and healing from abuse, even among a constant and on-going threat. It's written for those of us of an age when we sometimes feel life is over for us. It's about starting over, retirement, long distant relationships, second chances, romance over 50. It also explores moving abroad, living in a foreign land and becoming adventurous after a life of responsibility. Fifty is the new thirty, according to Abby Grey.
