Evan J. Albright

As readers of "Cape Cod Confidential" will discover, the sandy sliver of land known throughout the world for its dunes, lighthouses, and lobster dinners is not immune when it comes to the maxim about truth versus fiction.

Evan "Josh" Albright has done a remarkable job of digging out these stories and others, and has written them in a humorous, entertaining style that will make you smile despite the grisly themes of some of the crimes. He goes back to the first murderous clash between tourists and locals. If you think things are bad now, just read the fatal encounter between the Indians and the French explorer Samuel de Champlain.

-Paul Kemprecos, from his Foreword
