Dillon Walker's life is all about the plan. Finish high school with honours, stay out of trouble, and make his dad proud of him by following in his footsteps. A boyfriend doesn't figure into it--can't figure into it. Not with a homophobic dad, and a group of friends ready to discipline every queer they come across.

But a chance encounter while snowboarding ignites a long-standing infatuation, turning all of Dillon's plans upside down.
