Life In a Lemon Tree: Book of Poetry Ramona Mae Clawson

Life in a lemon tree is a book of poetry inspired by Survival. I the author Ramona Clawson have been through many health problems and almost lost my life on several occasions. These poems are a fight for survival and in doing so, have a much better appreciation for life and the people in my life. When life hands us lemons, it's not always possible to make lemonade but my will to survive made some dang good lemonade that gave me a fresh outlook on life. I was born in Klamath Falls Oregon and then moved away for some 30 years and recently came back to the town I was raised in. This book means a lot to me and I hope will inspire others that none of us should give up on life and fight to stay in it every way we can. I'm a survivor of many things and all it took was a positive attitude and a will so strong, it's impossible to break. This book is dedicated to my father Theodore Zane Clawson who lost his fight January 12, 2016. I love you Dad and may your lemon tree in heaven always be fruitful and sweet.
